Etwas tun oder machen müssen.

Du kannst das mit „must" oder mit „have to" ausdrücken. Die Form mit „must" gibt es nur in der Gegenwart.

Zeittabelle

SIMPLE PRESENT einfache Gegenwart	SIMPLE PAST einfache Vergangenheit (Erzähl-Vergangenheit)	PRESENT PERFECT vollendete Gegenwart	FUTURE Zukunft
I must pack the bag.
He, she, it must pack the bag.
We must learn.
We have to pack the bag.	I had to pack the bag.	I have had to pack the bag.	I will have to pack the bag.
You have to pack the bag.	You had to pack the bag.	You have had to pack the bag.	You will have to pack the bag.
He, she, it has to pack the bag.	He, she, it had to pack the bag.	He, she, it has had to pack the bag.	He, she, it will have to pack the bag.
They have to pack the bag.	They had to pack the bag.	They have had to pack the bag.	They will have to pack the bag.

Die Form in der Verneinung

I mustn´t pack the bag.
He, she, it mustn´t pack.
We mustn´t learn.
We haven´t to pack the bag.	I hadn´t to pack the bag.	I haven´t had to pack the bag.	I wont have to pack the bag.
You haven´t to pack the bag.	You hadn´t to pack the bag.	You haven´t had to pack the bag.	You wont have to pack the bag.
He, she, it hasn´t to pack the bag.	He, she, it hadn´t to pack the bag.	He, she, it hasn´t had to pack the bag.	He, she, it wont have to pack the bag.
They have to pack the bag.	They had to pack the bag.	They have had to pack the bag.	They will have to pack the bag.